Spring Humors are due to the impure, impoverished, devitalized condition of the blood brought about by the unhealthful modes of living during the winter, too close confinement, too little outdoor air and exercise, too heavy diet. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures them.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal for cleansing the blood and expelling the humors that accumulate during the winter. This spring pimples covered my face and troubled me very much. I took Hood's and they all disappeared." Ralph Rust, Mills, Mich.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

IN BURLINGTON

Parade, Church Attendance and Banquet
Made a Successful Observance.

Burlington, March 18.—St. Patrick's day was observed in this city yesterday, starting with a parade of seven hundred persons, followed by attendance at St. Mary's cathedral, where Rev. J. H. Driscoll of Pittsburg preached an eloquent sermon on the life and work of St. Patrick. The celebration ended with a banquet at St. Mary's hall last night.

The parade was headed by a platoon of police and Sherman's Military band, and the column contained large representations from the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Catholic Young Men's union, St. Mary's Benevolent association, St. Michael's band, Catholic Order of Foresters, Knights of Columbus, Holy Name society, Catholic club of the university of Vermont, Cathedral school drum corps, Juvenile Holy Name society and several priests of the parish.

The sermon by Rev. Fr. Driscoll was listened to with the closest attention. His text was found in the book of Ecclesiastes: "His memory shall not depart away, and His name shall be in request from generation to generation, and the nations shall declare His praise." The speaker said that the inspired writer might well have had in mind when he wrote these words, the great St. Patrick. His name has been in request from generation to generation and the church has shown forth his praise. The traits and qualities of St. Patrick are held in respect and veneration by all who know the history of this remarkable man. It is because of this life that there is feasting and rejoicing in the land of the saint and wherever the true Irish spirit prevails. This joy is manifest because of the records of the past point to him, as a great leader of his people to higher and holier things, as did the Blessed Savior before him.

"The religious strains of a Bridget and a Brendan are being whispered in her green valleys and heard from her lofty hillsides."

The preacher rehearsed the story of St. Patrick's youth, of his capture, of his tending flocks on the hillsides of Erin and of his return to his home to teach and preach Christianity. He heard the far-off voice of the Irish race call to him and he hearkened and came to their aid. Then came the conversion of many, the deeply religious nature of the race being moved by the story of the suffering of the divine Redeemer. The stability of this faith implanted by St. Patrick was evidenced in an incredibly short time by a wonderful revival that has gone on and on to this day. These were golden days for St. Patrick when the youth, ambition and talent from the courts of Europe came flocking to St. Patrick to learn from him of this religion.

Later the Danes swept down from northern Europe and in protecting the faith of the fatherland St. Patrick and his followers showed the strength of that faith, which withstood the attacks of the northern barbarians in a warfare that lasted 300 years.

The end of the disension paved the way for interference of England, which usurped the rights of the Irish and caused the untold suffering.

The speaker closed with a strong appeal for the Irish to remain loyal to the faith of the fatherland.

ADIN B. CAPRON DIES SUDDENLY.

Passing of the Veteran Rhode Island Congressman.

Smithfield, R. I., March 18.—Adin Balou Capron, congressman from the second Rhode Island district for seven consecutive terms, died at his home here, almost two weeks to a day from the completion of his 14 years of service in the national House of Representatives. He was 70 years old.

The former congressman had been in ill health for about a year from heart and kidney trouble, but his condition was not considered dangerous until yesterday morning, when he suffered a sudden death.

Death came so unexpectedly that one of his two sons, Adin Mowry Capron, who was in Providence, could not reach his father's bedside in time to see him alive.

At the bedside of the aged legislator when he passed away were his wife, his daughter, Helen, and his son, John. Another daughter, Mrs. Arthur Maybach, is at West Point, N. Y.

Former Congressman Capron was born in Mendon, Mass., on January 19, 1841, and received part of his education at Westbrook seminary at Westbrook, Me. He enlisted when the Civil war broke out and for his gallantry in the war he was promoted to the rank of captain and brevet major. Returning to civil life, he entered politics and was elected representative to the general assembly by the Republicans in 1887 and continued in that body for six years, the last two as speaker of the House.

Five years after leaving the general assembly, he was elected to the national House of Representatives and was re-elected for seven consecutive terms, ending his career in Congress on March 4 last. He was one of the most popular men in political life in the state, and one of the characteristics for which he was known in Washington and at home was his unfailing loyalty to his constituents and to his friends.

This was probably more marked in his last year in Congress than ever before, particularly in his steadfast support of former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon. He was unable to complete his last term in Congress because of ill health and for that reason he also declined the nomination for another term. He was succeeded by former Governor George H. Utter of Westerly, also a Republican.

SPANIARD KILLED GIRL.

And Then Turned His Revolver Upon Himself.

New York, March 18.—Jose Boveida, a Spaniard, 26 years old, shot and killed Miss Ida Reed, aged 20 years, in the offices of the Edison Phonograph company at Orange, N. J., and then killed himself. The double tragedy created intense excitement.

Miss Reed had spurned the attentions of Boveida, who was discharged because Miss Reed had complained of his unwelcome attentions.

Boveida called at the offices yesterday afternoon and when Miss Reed saw him she ran, screaming, from the room. Boveida followed and shot her dead, then killing himself.

Miss Reed had told her close friends that Boveida had threatened her and she had expressed fear of him.

LOS ANGELES MAN WEAK

Fight Scheduled for Twenty Rounds;
Only Goes Nine, When It Is Stopped by Referee—Mem-sic Helpless.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 18.—Ad Wolgast retained his title of lightweight champion yesterday afternoon in his scheduled 20-round fight with George Memsic of Los Angeles, rendering Memsic helpless and causing the referee to stop the fight in the ninth round.

Wolgast outclassed Memsic from start to finish and the result was never in doubt. He had the Los Angeles man helpless in the ninth, and referee Eytan stopped the contest, in accordance with a promise to District Attorney Fredericks that he would intervene the moment either man showed decided weakness.

Round 1—Memsic was the first to land, putting a light right to Wolgast's jaw. They clinched and exchanged vicious body blows. Wolgast declared Memsic hit him too low. Memsic rushed into another clinch and wrestled Wolgast to the floor. Memsic landed a hard right to the jaw and Wolgast put a stiff left to the stomach.

Round 2—They clinched and Memsic again threw Wolgast and was warned by the referee. Memsic put a hard right to the stomach and Wolgast covered. Wolgast landed a straight left on the nose and brought first blood. Wolgast put another to the face and took two straight lefts to the mouth in return. In a clinch both landed hard body blows.

Round 5—Wolgast backed Memsic to the ropes, landing terrific rights and lefts to the face and body. Memsic covered up. Wolgast fairly rained blows, Memsic sent a left to the body and right on the face. As the bell rang, Memsic put a stiff right on Wolgast's neck.

Round 6—Memsic missed two swings and Wolgast put a light left to the face, following with a stiff right to the same spot. Head to head, they exchanged body blows. Both kept well covered. Wolgast landed two blows to Memsic's nose and Memsic seemed tired. Wolgast shot a terrific right uppercut and Memsic seemed dazed.

Round 7—Wolgast caught Memsic with another right uppercut and the Los Angeles boy fell against the ropes. Memsic rushed into a clinch and Wolgast sent blow after blow to the body. The champion with a hard left sent Memsic up and countered with a right to Wolgast's jaw. He seemed to be weakened, however, and his punches did not bother Wolgast.

Round 8—They clinched and Wolgast pounded the kidneys. Memsic put a right to the jaw and Wolgast backed up. Memsic butted Wolgast with his head and the champion, shoving Memsic back.

trained rights and lefts to the face, Memsic covering. Memsic's face was badly swollen.

Round 9—Wolgast immediately rushed, evidently intending to try for a knockout. He shot in a series of hard rights and lefts to the face and body. Memsic was very weak and it was so evident that he was done for that referee Eytan stopped the fight, giving Wolgast the decision.

The principals in the fight were arrested later, on charges of participating in a prize fight.

RANDOLPH.

Funeral of Mrs. Austin Smith Was Held Yesterday.

The remains of Mrs. Austin Smith were brought here Friday from White River Junction, and the funeral services were held in the Bethany church, of which she was a devoted member. Rev. Fraser Metzger officiating. Interment was made in the Southview cemetery, beside her husband, whose death occurred about twelve years ago. Deceased is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Leonard Wheeler, with whom she was at the time of her death, Mrs. L. P. Thayer of Morrisville, and Mrs. George Cheney of St. Johnsbury. Besides, she had one son, Walter Smith, who is the cashier of the Florida state bank, at Orlando, Florida, and seven grandchildren. Parker Smith another son, died about six years ago. Mrs. Smith came to this village with her husband more than forty years ago, and nearly their entire married life was passed in the house now owned by Henry Johnson on School street. Mrs. Smith was a member of the old Christian church of this town and upon its union with the Congregational church, she retained her membership, and during her residence here which remained till three years ago, she was an active and interested member there. Mrs. Smith was born in Roxbury, 80 years ago, and three of the twelve children of her family survive, Mrs. A. L. Stearns of Bethel, Mrs. Ruth Bigelow of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Rosanna Begley of Yankton, S. D.

"ABSOLUTELY A LIAR"

Ottawa Parliament in An
Up roar

AS CAMPBELL ACCUSES

Member from Manitoba Attacks Neeley,
Who Accused Campbell of Bribery—
The Latter Later Withdraws
the Epithet.

Ottawa, March 18.—"My honorable friend is a liar, absolutely a liar," thundered Glenn Campbell, the Conservative member for Dauphin, Manitoba, a six-foot giant, in the House of Commons yesterday. One of the most tense situations and exciting scenes ever witnessed in the House of Parliament followed.

The House was in committee and Mr. Neeley of Humboldt, Alberta, in the course of a speech, declared that Glenn Campbell on a public platform had admitted bringing a government official to get a grazing lease.

The reply to Mr. Campbell brought proceedings to a standstill, and for five minutes nothing could be heard except the Liberals shouting "withdraw," and the Conservatives yelling "stick to your guns."

When Chairman McIntyre was able to make himself heard, he declared the expression unparliamentary and demanded that it be withdrawn.

"I called him a liar, and I refuse to take it back," shouted Campbell. "Talk of honesty! Where is the capital of Saskatchewan and what did it cost to vote it there?"

The chairman insisted on a withdrawal. "If the word is unparliamentary, I will withdraw it; but he is absolutely a liar," said Mr. Campbell.

"That is not a withdrawal," said the chairman. "I will not take a word back. He is a liar first, last, and all the time," repeated Mr. Campbell, white with rage.

"As the member refuses to withdraw, it will be my duty to report the matter to the House for such action as it may see fit to take," said the chairman. "However, I will give the member one more chance to withdraw."

A report to the House involves a possible expulsion from Parliament. "Mr. Chairman, it is a hard task to withdraw something that is absolutely true," said Mr. Campbell.

"The rule must be obeyed and the expression withdrawn," declared the chairman. "Then I will withdraw the expression and bow to your ruling," said Mr. Campbell.

Speaking later, Mr. Campbell declared that if Mr. Neeley dared repeat his charges outside the chamber he would chastise him.

TRY TO PROVE ALIBIS.

Accused Camorrista Under Cross-examination at Viterbo, Italy.

Viterbo, March 18.—The entire session of the trial of the 36 Camorrista was taken up yesterday by the cross-examination of Corrado Sortino and Nicola Morra, both of whom are accused of the actual murder of Genaro Cuocolo.

Both strenuously denied the charge and in an endeavor to prove an alibi testified that at the time Cuocolo was killed they were under police surveillance and could not possibly have left Naples to go to Torre del Greco, where the murder occurred.

Sortino attempted to explain the scars on his hand which, according to evidence adduced, were received from Cuocolo while Sortino was killing him by saying that one of them was caused by a pair of scissors and the other by the scratch of a pin.

STONE THE FIRST.

Extradited from Canada Under New Bankruptcy Act.

Boston, March 18.—Isaac Stone, a former boot and shoe dealer of Holyoke and the first person to be extradited from Canada under the new bankruptcy act, was sentenced to one year and one day in Cambridge jail yesterday for concealing assets from his trustee in bankruptcy.

Stone was arrested in Brooklyn, but evaded jail and went to Montreal, where he was removed to the United States District Attorney French was compelled to make a special trip to Montreal to convince the Canadian authorities that Stone was extraditable under the new act.

Upon being sentenced yesterday in the United States court, Stone threw himself on the floor and refused to leave the court room. He was carried out by the officers and immediately sent to Cambridge.

WHY HE DOES IT

"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said Druggist D. F. Davis to one of his many customers. "But I am glad to tell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan."

"A quick Dr. Howard Co. in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorized me to sell the regular fifty-cent bottle of this specific for half price, 25 cents, and although have sold a lot of it and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

"I am still selling the specific at half price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, indigestion, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity. If the specific does not cure them, they can come right back to my store, and I will cheerfully refund their money."

"I don't think it is fair to the public to keep the medicine at half price, but I will do so for a limited time, and I will refund the money if it does not cure."

SUNNY MONDAY

There is not an ounce of rosin in Sunny Monday Laundry Soap. Rosin is used in all other laundry soaps—because it is cheaper than the fats and oils used in Sunny Monday. Sunny Monday costs more to manufacture than any other laundry soap of which we know. It is kind to clothes—will not shrink flannels or woollens, or turn clothes yellow.

Sunny Monday is just as pure as its whiteness indicates; it is the safest and most economical laundry soap you can use.

The most severe cold will be broken, and all gripe misery ended after taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

You will distinctly feel all the disagreeable symptoms leaving after the very first dose.

The most miserable neuralgia pains, headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism pains and other distress vanishes.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or gripe.

Take this harmless compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end gripe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

PANAMA CANAL 72 PER CENT DUG OUT

Only 50,000,000 Yards Left to Be Excavated—Progress on Gatun Dam.

Washington, March 18.—The excavation in the central division of the Panama canal, including the great Culabra cut and the Chagres section during February was the greatest on record, being 1,499,338 cubic yards. Altogether in that division 71,033,522 yards have been excavated, leaving 26,091,496 yards to be taken out.

Taking the canal as a whole, up to March 1, there had been taken out 131,824,426 yards, leaving to be excavated 67,708,330 yards.

The canal at the Pacific entrance is completed from deep water to a point opposite the Panama railroad wharf at Balboa, about five miles. Inland from this point the open water channel extends three miles, varying from 30 to 45 feet in depth, and certain sections have been excavated to its final width of 500 feet.

In the Atlantic entrance to the canal, the channel is completed to its full width of 500 feet. There remains to be taken out of this section 30,000,000 yards of earth, and 3,800,000 of rock, so the earth excavation is 66 per cent, and the rock 69 per cent, completed.

Excavation in the big Gatun lock is practically complete and about 56 per cent of the concrete is in place.

The Gatun dam, the greatest in the world, is about 60 per cent, completed. The concrete work in the locks at Pedro Miguel is over 67 per cent, completed, and in place at the Miraflores locks.

THE QUINCY SETTLEMENT.

As Seen by the Organ of the Granite Cutters' Union.

We predicted correctly last month that a settlement would be made by our Quincy branches before the date of change of agreements, and all participating are entitled to congratulations on the long-deferred good judgment. The three Quincy branches did not get where they were looking for, nor anywhere near what they are entitled to, but they made good progress. If anyone can show reasons why a man has to work as hard as he does in that ancient burg for less than $3.60 per day and $4 on the average, he will be written in history as one of the greatest discoverers of the twentieth century. In localities, however, where workmen get advances slowly and in small portions, the Quincy settlement measures up to real progress. One of the favorable features of the settlement in question is that it provided for uniform increase of wages to all workmen on the rate they had received under the old agreement. This is the first time reasonable guarantee of a uniform increase was given to the man earning above the minimum in Quincy, so it marks an epoch. The employer who did not desire to give the increase in each instance violated the spirit as well as the letter of the agreement, and we have been assured that the employers' committee and association are not supporting its members in dilly-dallying with this question. As far as our own members are concerned, if any of them received a rate above the old minimum did not call for and insist upon receiving the new increase, they were unfaithful to themselves, to their obligation, and to the purpose and intention of the new agreement, and anyone so situated should appeal to his own conscience, as to where he fits, in the effort to establish good trade agreements.—Granite Cutters' Journal.
